The Best Game in the World Ever
(aka 'Gag Reflex')

Invented by Beth, Tim + Tom in the lay-by at the Roy Gorge Get off.

1. Take a lolly and suck until smooth
2. Take end of lolly stick in thumb and forefinger
3. Push slowly to the back of throat
4. Watch in anticipation
5. Gag

This is the best game in the world ever
I defy you not to laugh
There are no winners
It's the taking part (and gagging) that counts!

Name that crotch:
Take photos of crotches, then guess whose is whose!

Flip-cup:
Put cup face down on edge of table. Take it in turns to flip it until it lands the right way up. The flipper has then won.

Reviews:
"Flip-cup ruined my life" - M. Hunt
"If flip-cup was a girl, I wouldn't" - McKrevis Phil
"Id rather rub lemon juice into my chaffed nipples than ever watch or play flip-cup ever again" - B. Dover
"Flip-cup = shit-cup" - Anon
"Some people, admittedly a minority of Thom , think that flip-cup is a good game. Anyway it isn't as ad as a JJ lap dance." - Anon your eyes!

Poetry/Songs

A Poem About Saturday

Today we paddles a good Scottish river
So good it made Tim Rochester quiver
Helen took a three quarter swim
But even this couldn't stop her grin
For the sun was shining
And the sky was blue
Mud fights were fun
And involved lots of poo
When we got back we ate
Bangers and mash
Then everyone (so tired)
Needed to crash
My poetry just gets better and better
Just wait till it rains
We'll get wetter and wetter (in all senses)
How exciting!
Yay!

Maestro of Rubbish Rymes

Ode to a repaired Scotland Diary cover

A poem about duct tape
Would be suitable for this cover
This lovely silver sticky stuff
Makes a fabulous lover
It's also good for fixing things
Remember: It's name is 'duct'
If, with this, you cannot fix
You know it's truly broken.

My Favourite Things—Paddling Stylee!

When the rain comes and it's in spate
And you're stuck in a weir
I simply remember my favourite things
And then I don't say "Oh Dear"

Warm cosy fires and hot cups of cocoa
Lots of dry clothes and playing su duko
Mountains of food and water from springs
These are a few of my favourite things
